

APPLICATION AND INFORMATION

FOR THE

W.P. AND ANN HOWLE SCHOLARSHIPS

AT

MIDWESTERN STATE UNIVERSITY

WICHITA FALLS, TEXAS

On December 6, 1977, W.P. and Ann Howle of Wichita Falls, Texas announced the establishment of a scholarship endowment to recognize outstanding students attending Midwestern State University. The scholarships, based on merit, are to be given to full or part time students of any undergraduate classification who attend or who will attend Midwestern State. Merit is to be interpreted as academic achievement, good citizenship and potential for service to society.

Applicants for the W.P. and Ann Howle scholarship should note the following:

1. New applicants must submit transcripts of previous academic work, and application status. Beginning freshmen must submit a high school transcript and entering test scores. New applicants must submit two letters of recommendation using only the enclosed forms to the MSU Admissions Office for consideration by a selection committee by the printed June 1 application deadline. You must be accepted for admission to MSU before the printed application deadline.
2. Scholarship amounts will be divided between the Fall and Spring semesters. Recipients will be notified after the June 1 application deadline of the award to be given the following Fall term.
3. MSU students who are current recipients must reapply by the printed June 1 application deadline. To be reconsidered, the student must maintain a minimum cumulative grade point average of no less than 2.5 (undergraduate) or 3.25 (graduate).
4. Scholarships may be renewed provided the student maintains the minimum cumulative grade point average and is an enrolled student each long semester term of enrollment and pursuing a degree.
5. Preference will be given to those students who are engaged in or from families engaged in the building trade/construction industries.
6. Post graduate students who have received a scholarship from this fund as undergraduates are eligible to receive grants for their post graduate studies whether attending Midwestern State or another institution. Post graduate students must adhere to the printed June 1 application deadline and must show proof of enrollment.
