CAMPUS NEWS

MSU Awarded Community Partner of the Year

MSU was awarded Community Partner of the Year by BBBS for its dedication to the organization. In early 2010, MSU approached Big Brothers Big Sisters to be its partner for the Fall 2010 semester. Support of the BBBS organization has been a campus-wide project, supported by multiple offices and departments. There are currently 30 students, faculty, and staff matched with a child.

Midwestern Club Scholarship

Applications are now being accepted for the Midwestern Club Scholarship. The recipient must be a full-time faculty, staff, or administrator at MSU or an immediate family member (husband, wife, son, or daughter) of a full-time employee. The recipient must be enrolled in a minimum of 12 hours. The scholarship is for one year and is equally divided between the fall and spring semesters. Applications are available on the Donor Services website: <http://www.mwsu.edu/donations/scholarship-apps.asp>. The deadline to apply is June 1.

FOR SALE

MSU Bookstore

New arrivals at the MSU Bookstore include a new shipment of bargain books, MSU ballcaps, and new t-shirts. Dr. Rodriguez's new book, I Bleed Red, White and Blue: The Diary of a Happy Pilgrim, will be on the shelf within the next two weeks.

THANK YOU

I would like to thank everyone for the phone calls, texts, emails, cards, flowers, and support during the hospitalization and loss of my mother. Your compassion was truly a source of strength to me and my family during this difficult time. Thank you! – Michelle Wells

IN THE SPOTLIGHT

Nathan Jun, Assistant Professor of Philosophy, has published a paperback edition of his second book, Deleuze and Ethics, co-edited with Daniel W. Smith (Edinburgh University Press).
