Speakers and Issues

The Mayor's Daughter

MSU's own James Hoggard, author and distinguished professor, will read from his new novel, The Mayor's Daughter at 7 p.m. Thursday, October 27, at the Museum of Art at MSU. Hoggard creates a place like Wichita Falls in the mid-1920s where, as prominent novelist Sarah Bird said, he gives us an extraordinarily powerful family drama. The potent forces detailed in The Mayor's Daughter include both lyrical and raw turns in a world where a figure of courage rises in the midst of breathtaking cruelty and hard-earned sense of justice and hope. Admission is free, but donations are welcome. For more information, call ext. 4259.

Exploring the World of Art Bus Tour

The Museum of Art at MSU presents Exploring the World of Art at the Kimbell Art Museum and the Modern Museum of Art. The bus departs at 8:15 a.m. Wednesday, October 26, from the Museum of Art. Space is limited. Price is $45 and includes bus fare, museum admission, docents, and refreshments. For reservations or more information, call The Kemp Center for the Arts at 767-2787.

Opening Reception

Amy Cordova and Dan Enger's Saints and Sinners will be displayed from October 28-November 25 in the Juanita Harvey Art Gallery. Spectrum: Kappa Pi will be displayed in the foyer gallery. An opening reception will be held from 6-8 p.m. Friday, October 28, in the main and foyer galleries. Halloween costumes are encouraged for the reception. For more information, contact the Department of Visual Arts at ext. 4264.

Resumania Days

In preparation for the upcoming MSU Career Expo, the Career Management Center presents Resumania Days from 1-6 p.m. Monday, October 24, and 10 a.m.- noon and 1-6 p.m. Tuesday, October 25, in CSC 108. CMC College Coordinators will be on hand to provide resume critiques; students should bring a resume rough draft to the event. We look forward to assisting as many students as possible. For more information contact the Career Management Center at ext. 4473.
