MARK YOUR CALENDAR

Artist Lecture Series: Valerie Plame Wilson

While serving her country as a CIA clandestine operations officer, Valerie Plame Wilson kept her occupation and her identity a secret from all but a very few close family members. When her covert status was revealed by senior White House and State Department officials to several national journalists, one of whom published her name, it set off a firestorm still raging today. Having captured the nation's attention, her outing has played a central role in the country's turbulent struggle to redefine the First Amendment and the right to privacy; it has also undermined public trust of its leadership. This event will be at 7 p.m. Thursday, September 15, in Akin Auditorium. Faculty and Staff may pick up two complimentary tickets at CSC Information desk two weeks prior to the event.

Soda and Sandwiches: Plagiarism/Integrity in the Classroom

Join the Teaching and Learning Resource Center for Soda and Sandwiches at 12 p.m. Friday, September 16, in the Mesquite Cafe for a discussion about Plagiarism and Integrity in the Classroom.
