Third Annual External Funding Workshop

The Office of Sponsored Programs will present the Third Annual External Funding Workshop for all faculty and staff from 1-3 p.m. Friday, February 8, in Dillard 189. Anyone interested in the grant proposal process at MSU is encouraged to attend. This workshop is especially helpful for new faculty and staff interested in finding external funding for their research or program areas. Dr. Marilyn Fowlé, Vice President for Business Affairs and Finance, will be the featured speaker. Additional presenters will include Diane Spiller, Pre-Award Coordinator in the Office of Sponsored Programs, and Hayley Laughlin, Accountant II and who is responsible for grant budgets and Post-Award reporting for the university. An optional session will be presented at 2 p.m. to enroll interested attendees in the Sponsored Programs Information Network (SPIN), which is a funding opportunities database designed to email registered users automatic notification of new funding opportunities that match their interests. Refreshments will be provided. Please RSVP to Diane Spiller, ext. 4714 or diane.spiller@mwsu.edu.

High School Art Competition

The Juanita and Ralph Harvey School of Visual Arts presents a High School Art Competition from 11 a.m.-2 p.m. Saturday, February 9, in the Foyer Gallery. The submissions will be on display through February 14. Admission is free. For more information, call ext. 4264.
