Travel Policy Update

Airlines have recently instituted new surcharges for preferred seating. Since these fees are relatively new, they are not currently addressed in the MSU travel policies and procedures. Because these fees are not considered to be ordinary and necessary business expenses, they are not reimbursable to employees. While we work to update our travel policies and procedures, please make note of this policy update to assist with future airline bookings and to avoid any confusion with regard to travel reimbursements. Should you have any questions, contact us at ext. 4112 or ext. 4104. Please also update your bookmark for the Travel Management Website.

Relaxation Group for Stress

Stressed or overwhelmed? Join the Counseling Center for a relaxation session each week. This group will meet from 3:30-4:30 p.m. Thursdays beginning September 19 through November 21. Participants may begin any time during the semester. For more information, contact the Counseling Center at ext. 4618.

Diaper Dash Garage Sale

Students and faculty from the Department of Social Work will take part in a community fund-raiser to benefit area nonprofit organizations that serve women and children in crisis. The Diaper Dash Garage Sale will be from 7 a.m.-3 p.m. Saturday, September 21, at the University United Methodist Church. Treasure, cotton candy, and lemonade will be sold. Payment can be in form of cash or diapers. All proceeds go toward the purchase of diapers. Channel 6 recently interviewed Visiting Professor Leigh Anne Hope and several MSU students about the project.

In the Spotlight

Christopher Wertz, Assistant Professor in Radiologic Science, co-authored two articles. "Lateral Positioning of the Nasal Bones Using Digital Radiography" was published in the July/August 2013 edition of Radiologic Technology. The second article, "Investigating Orthogonal Radiography in the Diagnosis of Radial Head Fractures," will be published in the upcoming September/October 2013 edition of Radiologic Technology. Radiologic Technology is the professional journal of the American Society of Radiologic Technologists.
