Around Campus

Building the Job I Love Series: Leslie Thompson

Leslie Thompson, owner of Dusty Rocker Boots, designed a way to make boots with interchangeable inlays, and as a result she now owns her own company. Thompson will be guest speaker of Building the Job I Love Series at noon Wednesday, February 19, in Dillard 189. Free pizza and soda will be provided. The series is sponsored by the Dillard College of Business Administration's Lalani Center for Entrepreneurship and Free Enterprise. For more information, contact Dr. Jeff Stambaugh at ext. 4634.

Teaching & Learning Colloquium Wine and Cheese

Drs. Magaly Rincon-Zachary, Rebecca Dodge, Chris Shao, and Suzanne Lindt will serve as panelists for "Lessons Learned from Engaging Students in Research" at 4:30 p.m. Thursday, February 20, in Dillard 189. This interactive discussion will reflect on their experiences with the faculty/student research partnership. The program is part of the Teaching and Learning Resource Center's Wine and Cheese events. The wine is sponsored by Dr. Lynn Little, Dean of the College of Science and Mathematics. To RSVP, contact Lucy Davis at ext. 4867 or lucy.davis@mwsu.edu.

Film Screening: Inequality for All

A screening of Inequality for All will be presented at 2 p.m. Sunday, February 23, in CSC Shawnee Theater. A panel discussion will follow with MSU professors Nathan Jun, John Martinez, and Bradley Wilson. Inequality for All is a documentary that follows former U.S. Labor Secretary Robert Reich as he looks to raise awareness of the country's widening economic gap. It is a Sundance Film Festival Special Jury Prize Winner and a Traverse City Film Festival Audience Award Winner for Best Documentary Film. Extra credit for students is available for those professors who provide a sign-in sheet to Dr. Magaly Rincón-Zachary at magaly.rincon@mwsu.edu. She will provide the sheets at the event and the return to the professors. For more information, contact Dr. Mitzi Lewis at ext. 4375.

MSU Credit Union: Franks and Thanks

All MSU Credit Union members are invited to the Franks and Thanks Annual Meeting at 6 p.m. Thursday, February 20, at the Sikes Lake Center. Each member in attendance will be registered for a chance to win cash door prizes. Hot dogs, fries, dessert, iced tea, and lemonade will be prepared by the MSU Kiowa Kooks. For more information, call ext. 4621.

Academic Workshop: Career and Educational Development

The MSU Counseling Center will present a one-hour academic workshop about career and educational development at 2 p.m. Tuesday, February 25, in the Sundance Court Third Floor Meeting Room. Professors are welcome to include this information in their syllabi and offer extra credit to students if desired. Students will be provided attendance verification forms. For more information, call ext. 4618.

The Graduate School Open House

The Graduate School will sponsor an open house at 4:30 p.m. Tuesday, February 25, in Dillard 189. The open house will feature information about the 25 graduate programs in the five colleges. Attendees will have an opportunity to meet with graduate coordinators and representatives from The Graduate School as well as hear testimonials from current graduate students. Two $50 gift cards will be given away, and light refreshments will be served. For more information, contact Amanda Cantu at ext. 4920.

Moffett Library Workshop

Moffett Library will present "Getting the best results out of your database search" at 1 p.m. Wednesday, February 26, and at 11 a.m. Thursday, February 27, in Moffett 212A. For more information about this one-hour workshop, call Allison Breen at ext. 4171 or Ryan Samuelson at ext. 4177.
