B Good 2 U MSU Wellness Fair

The fourth annual B Good 2 U MSU Wellness Fair will be from 11 a.m.-1:30 p.m. Wednesday, November 5, in Sunwatcher Plaza. The fair will feature music, food and demonstrations on health, fitness, and relaxation. Students will receive information on ways to increase their physical, intellectual, emotional, and social wellness. There will also be free T-shirts and food for the first 200 participants. The fair will also focus on the attitudes of gratefulness and thanksgiving and students are encouraged to bring a canned good to donate to the needy. Those donating will be entered in a drawing for a gift card. Departments participating in this fun event include the Counseling Center, Disability Support Services, Housing and Residence Life, MSU Police Department, Recreational Sports/Wellness Center, Student Development, UPB, Vinson Health Center, and the Graduate Counseling and Psychology departments. For more information, call ext. 4618.

Notes from the Underground by Dostoevsky

The Midwestern State University Bookstore will host a reading by Dr. Kirsten Lodge from 5-6 p.m. Monday, November 10, at the Wichita Falls Museum of Art at MSU. Lodge is the Program Coordinator for the Department of Humanities and Assistant Professor of English. She will read from her recent translation, Notes from the Underground, by Fyodor Dostoevsky, published by Broadview Press. The reading will be followed by a question-and-answer session and book signing. For more information, call ext. 4225.

Academic Workshop: Four Steps to a 4.0

The MSU Counseling Center will present a one-hour academic workshop about Taming Test Anxiety at 2 p.m. Tuesday, November 4, in the Sundance Court Third Floor Meeting Room. Professors are welcome to include this information in their syllabi and offer extra credit to students if desired. Students will be provided attendance verification forms. For more information, call ext. 4618.

Business Networking Career Fair

The Career Management Center will sponsor a business networking career fair from 10 a.m.-12:30 p.m. Wednesday, November 12, in the Dillard College of Business Administration. Employers are looking to fill internship and full-time employment needs. For more information, call ext. 4473.

Continuing Education

Art Workshop: Self Portraits

MSU Continuing Education will continue its art workshop on self portraits from 6-8 p.m. Thursday, November 13, at the Sikes Lake Center. Participants will work on self-portraits while learning how to choose complimentary colors, blend, and shade. No drawing experience necessary. All levels of artists are welcome and should bring a mirror; all other supplies are included. Cost for the workshop is $40. For more information, call ext. 4307.

Show Me Moore: Selections from the Nolan A. Moore III Heritage of Print Collection

Moffett Library will present Dr. Todd Samuelson, curator of Rare Books and Manuscripts at Cushing Memorial Library & Archives at Texas A&M University, from 6-8 p.m. Thursday, November 13, at the Wichita Falls Museum of Art at MSU. Samuelson will visit the Nolan A. Moore III Heritage of Print Collection November 12-13 and select items from the Moore Collection to analyze. He will then give an informational lecture on his findings titled "Little Volume, but Large Book: The Value of Special Collections Artifacts." His talk will focus not only on analyzing the pieces from the collection but also on the idea of the significance and complexity that accumulates in books over time as various people use and engage with them. This talk is part of Moffett Library's occasional series "Show Me Moore: Selections from the Nolan A. Moore III Heritage of Print Collection," which houses man's attempts at written communication from cuneiform and clay tablets to comic books. For more information, call ext. 4031 or email stacy.johnson@mwsu.edu.

Percussion and Steel Pan Ensemble

The MSU Percussion and Steel Pan groups will present "An Evening of Percussion and Steel Pan" at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, November 13, in Akin Auditorium. The Steel Bandits, who were recently invited to perform at the 2015 Texas Music Educators Conference in San Antonio, will start the concert, followed by the Percussion Ensemble. Gainsborough, a standard of classical percussion ensemble literature, will be performed, along with other percussion pieces. The concert will conclude with a performance by the Caribbean Pan Ensemble, made up of Caribbean students, under the direction of percussion major Zahra Lake. The concert is free and open to the public. For more information, call ext. 4267.
