In the Spotlight

Bradley Wilson, Assistant Professor of Mass Communication, received the Top Faculty Paper Award at the Cronkite Conference on Media Ethics and Integrity at Missouri Western State University in St. Joseph, Missouri, for a presentation titled, "All I Needed to Learn About Photojournalism Ethics I Learned in Kindergarten: Lessons from the Boston Marathon." Two papers from the same academic study were published in the peer-reviewed College Media Review.

Rebecca Dodge, Associate Professor of Geosciences, received one of only five honorary member awards presented by the American Association of Petroleum Geologists (AAPG) in 2015. She will receive her award at the 2016 AAPG Annual Meeting in Calgary. The award is given to those individuals who “have distinguished themselves by their accomplishments and through their service to the profession of petroleum geology and to the AAPG.”
