Continuing Education: Sculptural Ceramics Class

The Center for Continuing Education will offer a sculptural ceramics class beginning on June 1. Classes will meet Mondays from 5-9 p.m. through July 27. Classes will be taught by Pam Moller, MSU resident ceramic artist and alumna, in the ceramics studio in Fain C119. She will teach beginning, intermediate, and advanced handbuilding (sculpture); no experience is necessary to participate. Tuition is $200 and includes all materials and firings. To register, call Lorraine at ext. 4307. To learn more about the class, contact steve.hilton@mwsu.edu.

Continuing Education: Open Studio for Metals

The Center for Continuing Education will conduct an open metals studio beginning Monday, June 1, through Thursday, July 2. The studio will be open from 7 a.m.-

6 p.m. and 6-10 p.m. with the buddy system Monday-Thursday. No materials are provided, and all studio safety rules must be followed. Participants must sign the safety/studio agreement prior to June 1. Make an appointment with Suguru Hiraide at suguru.hiraide@mwsu.edu or ext. 4389.

Continuing Education: First Aid and CPR Classes

The Center for Continuing Education will offer first aid/CPR certification and recertification classes from 5-9 p.m. Thursday, June 4, and Tuesday, July 7, at the Sikes Lake Center. The cost is $65. The first two classes over the summer will be geared toward the teenage babysitter. Participants will learn how to respond to common first-aid emergencies, including burns, cuts, head, neck, and back injuries, and cardiac and breathing emergencies in adults, including the use of automated external defibrillators (AED), adult and infant/child CPR. For more information or to register, call ext. 4307.
