The MSU Percussion Ensemble will perform at 7 p.m. Thursday, November 3, in Akin Auditorium. The concert is free. For more information, call ext. 4267.

Red River Reading Series

The Red River Reading Series will present Donovan Irven, Visiting Assistant Professor of Philosophy, with students Lane Riggs and Kalli Root, at 4 p.m. Friday, November 4, in the Legacy Hall Multipurpose Room. Admission is free. For more information, call ext. 6249.

Self-Defense Training for Women

The Midwestern State University Police Department is sponsor a Rape Aggression Defense (RAD) self-defense course for MSU women, to be held during the month of November. The goal of this course is to enhance basic knowledge in several key areas including basic women's self-defense options, self-empowerment, and danger awareness. The presentation format will include both lecture and practical exercises; participants will be given the opportunity to learn and apply certain techniques including strikes, kicks, and floor exercises. While the entire course length is nine hours, the training will be administered in three separate training blocks as follows:

- 6-9 p.m. November 4
- 6-9 p.m. November 11
- 6-9 p.m. November 18

Attendance at all three classes is required for successful completion. For more information, call ext. 4239

Mustangs Rally

MSU invites prospective students, parents, and guests to experience college life on Saturday, November 5. Guests will have the opportunity to tour the campus, talk to faculty, coaches, and current students, tour housing facilities, meet with MSU Admissions, learn about courses and majors offered, and talk with Financial Aid. For more information, call ext. 4334.

In the Spotlight

SuHua Huang, Associate Professor of Reading, and Matthew Capps, Dean of the West College of Education, published an article titled "U.S. and Chilean College Students' Reading Practices: A Cross-Cultural Perspective," in the Reading Research Quarterly, 51(4), 455-471. Reading Research Quarterly (RRQ) is the flagship journal in the field of literacy.

Todd Giles, Assistant Professor of English, was presented with the distinction of becoming a Distinguished Honorary Member of the National Society of Collegiate Scholars by the organization's national Board of Regents and MSU's chapter officers during their induction ceremony on Saturday, October 15. He, along with Betty Stewart, Provost, and Keith Lamb,

Vice President, had the pleasure of addressing current NSCS members, new inductees, and their parents and friends.

The Star Award recognizes Facilities Services employees who take pride in their work and give outstanding service to the campus. The following employees are being recognized with a certificate posted in their work space as well as a unique copper mustang cut out that can be displayed on desks and/or in the Daniel Building front office.

Timothy Grant, Custodian, works very late hours (5 p.m.-2 a.m., the worst possible shift) and through the holidays to make sure the Wellness Center patrons are taken care of. He never complains and does a great job keeping the building clean.

Mike Gillis, Carpentry Foreman, repeatedly goes above and beyond to resolve issues, especially his latest efforts related to roofing. With all the rains in the last month or so, he has spent a lot of time investigating and plugging roof leaks. During the 6-inch rain occurrence a few weeks ago, he spent a considerable amount of effort checking on leaks at 11 p.m. on a Saturday night. He continually shows a considerable amount of initiative when it comes to researching these leaks.
