Safe Zone Training Workshops

Safe Zone training increases the awareness, knowledge, and skills for individuals and addresses the challenges that exist when one wants to advocate for their LGBTQ peers, family members, friends, coworkers, and themselves. Creating safe zones or safe spaces is a proactive step that schools, agencies, and corporations can take to create welcoming, inclusive spaces so that all people are empowered to reach their full potential. Two sessions are available:

Wednesday, April 5

3-5 p.m. in Moffett Library; Featuring: Interactive Theater Student Participation

Friday, April 7

1-2 p.m. in Legacy Hall Multipurpose Room; Safe Zone Luncheon sponsored by the Fain College of Fine Arts.

RSVP to attend one of these dates. For more information, Chris D'Amico at christopher.damico@mwsu.edu or Jonathon Quam at jonathon.quam@mwsu.edu, co-advisors of P.R.I.D.E.

Volleyball Fundraiser: Parents Night Out

The MSU volleyball team will sponsor Parents Night Out from 6-10 p.m. Friday, April 7; Friday, April 21; and Friday, April 28 in D.L. Ligon Coliseum. Cost is $40 per child, plus $10 for each additional sibling. Children must be ages 4 and older. Each night will feature its own theme featuring an MSU athletics team. Dinner is provided in the cost. Parents/legal guardians must drop off and pick up their own children unless there is a previous arrangement. Preregister here.

MARK YOUR CALENDAR

Faculty Forum Series: Dr. Whitney Snow

The Faculty Forum Series will present Dr. Whitney Snow at 7 p.m. Monday, April 10, in Clark Student Center Wichita I and II. Snow's topic will be about the life of Southern writer William Nabors. "Alabama Bill & the Bowery: The Collected Works of a Genteel Hobo" tells Nabors' story of tramping across the country in the 1920s before settling in New York City. Along the way he became acquainted with historical figures such as Zane Grey and Harry Houdini. Nabors suffered from mental illness and died in 1958. Admission is free. Contact Dr. Jon Price at jonathan.price@mwsu.edu or call ext. 4288 for more information.

Book Release Party with Professor Emerita Lynn Hoggard

The Departments of English, Humanities, and Philosophy, and the Bryan L. Lawrence Endowment will host an evening of poetry and book release party with Professor Emerita Lynn Hoggard at 7 p.m. Monday, April 10, at the Wichita Falls Museum of Art at MSU. Hoggard will read from her new book, Bushwhacking Home. Copies of the book will be available for purchase. Admission is free. Contact Dr. John Schulze at john.schulze@mwsu.edu for information.

University Choir and Midwestern Singers Concert

The Department of Music will present the University Choir and the Midwestern Singers at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, April 11, in Akin Auditorium. Admission is free. For more information, call ext. 4267.

Suicide Prevention Training Program

Join other faculty, staff, and students in learning the three-step QPR model by attending a training session conducted by the professional counselors from the Counseling Center. The free, one-hour training will begin at 2 p.m. Wednesday, April 12, in Dillard 129. For more information, contact the MSU Counseling Center at ext. 4618. Reservations are not required. However, seating is limited.
