IN THE SPOTLIGHT

Dr. Martin Camacho, Dean of the Fain College of Fine Arts, released his latest CD, Armengol, with the 22 Cuban Dances for piano by composer Mario Ruiz Armengol, under the Urtext Digital Classics label. Aside from receiving excellent reviews in specialized classical music magazines, he presented this release in Cuba, where he received national TV coverage. In addition, he will perform Tchaikovsky's "Piano Concerto No. 1" with the Holguin (Cuba) Symphony Orchestra at a gala concert and closing of the concert season in early June.

Jane Leach and Betty Bowles from the Wilson School of Nursing attended the United States Lactation Consultant Association annual meeting in San Antonio in May. Leach presented Foundations of Ethical Clinical Lactation Practice. Leach and Bowles presented a poster co-authored by Marty Gibson and Lauren Jansen titled Prenatal Education: Protecting, Promoting and Supporting Breastfeeding. They also presented three posters titled "Breast Massage: A "Handy" Multipurpose Tool to Promote Breastfeeding Success," "Haiti: Exclusive Breastfeeding in the Prevention and Treatment of Cholera," and "Fear/Threat Appeals and the Importance of Self-Efficacy in Breastfeeding Mothers."

Dr. Whitney Snow, Assistant Professor of History, attended the Teaching History in the 21st Century Conference at the University of California, Berkeley, May 5-6.
