AROUND CAMPUS

Safe Zone Training

Chris D'Amico and Jonathon Quam, co-advisors of P.R.I.D.E. will present a Safe Zone Training Session at 3 p.m. Monday, October 23, in Legacy Multipurpose Room. The training session is designed to increase awareness, knowledge, and skills for individuals and will address the challenges that exist when one wants to advocate for their LGBTQ peers, family members, friends, co-workers, and themselves. Creating safe zones or safe spaces is a proactive step that schools, agencies, and corporations can take to create welcoming, inclusive spaces so that all individuals are empowered to reach their full potential.

To RSVP, contact D'Amico or Quam at christopher.damico@mwsu.edu or jonathon.quam@mwsu.edu.

Active Shooter Awareness Presentations

MSU Police Chief Patrick Coggins will present two sessions addressing Active Shooter Awareness at 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. Wednesday, October 25, in Dillard 189. The sessions will provide information and avoidance strategies in the event of an active shooter on campus. All employees are encouraged to attend one of the two training sessions. For more information, contact Human Resources at ext. 4221.

Reel to Real Film Series #2: More Than a Word

The Office of Equity, Inclusion, & Multicultural Affairs will present the second film in its Reel to Real Film Series at 7 p.m. Thursday, November 2, in Legacy Multipurpose Room. The film More Than a Word by John and Kenn Little explores Native American-based mascots, especially the Washington Redskins, and their impact on real-life attitudes, issues, and policies. Through interviews with scholars, tribal leaders, lawyers, policy experts, activists, and Washington Redskins' fans, the film delves into cultural stereotypes of Native Americans and their relationship to history. Ultimately, the film argues for representations that honor and celebrate the humanity of indigenous people.

The Reel to Real Series introduces and engages MSU students in a variety of topics focused on culturally relevant themes. A guest panel offers thoughtful commentary on each film and engages the audiences in deeper dialogue and reflection. For more information, contact Syreeta Greene at ext. 4084 or syreeta.greene@mwsu.edu.
