Prof. Edwards Discussions in Politics Presents Greg Sagan

The Prof Edwards Discussions in Politics Series continues this week at 11 a.m. Tuesday, October 31, in the Legacy Multipurpose Room with a visit from Greg Sagan. After a career in the U.S. Navy, Sagan worked in the nuclear energy field and following retirement began to write editorials and an internet blog on contemporary political issues. This experience lead Greg to enter politics. He is currently seeking the Democratic Party nomination for the 13th Congressional District. During his presentation, he will examine several contemporary political issues with the audience in an interactive format. For more information about the series, contact Dr. Steve Garrison at steve.garrison@mwsu.edu.

The Value of the Humanities: Why Study Culture?

Join the Department of Humanities at 4 p.m. Thursday, November 2, in PY 201 for a discussion of the importance of studying world cultures in a variety of disciplines through the Humanities Program. Faculty will provide an overview of the program, and a panel of students will share why they decided to study the humanities. Refreshments will be provided. For more information, contact Dr. Kirsten Lodge at kirsten.lodge@mwsu.edu.

Diwali

MISA (Midwestern Indian Student Association) will present Diwali at 6 p.m. Saturday November 4, at the Sikes Lake Center. Diwali, or festival of lights, is a festival where people from all age groups participate. They give expression to their happiness by lighting earthen diyas (lamps), decorating the house, bursting firecrackers and inviting near and dear ones to their households for partaking in a sumptuous feast. The lighting of lamps is a way of expressing gratefulness for attainment of health, wealth, knowledge, peace, and valor. Dinner is $6. For more information or to RSVP, please contact MISA President Aditya Reddy at adityareddy.kankanala@gmail.com.

MARK YOUR CALENDAR

Repurposed Yard and Garden Décor

The Center for Continuing Education will present a repurposed yard and garden décor class from 5:30-7 p.m. Tuesday, November 7, at Sikes Lake Center. Cost is $25-45, depending on project, with all supplies included. For more information or to RSVP, call the Center for Continuing Education at ext. 4307.

Last Lecture Series Presents Jeremy Duff

The inaugural Last Lecture Series kicks off with Associate Professor of Political Science Jeremy Duff at 7 p.m. Tuesday, November 7, in Legacy Multipurpose Room. His topic will be "Two Significant Things I've Learned So Far." The Last Lecture Series is inspired by a series of lectures by noted professors on what matters most to them as they give a hypothetical last lecture. For more information, contact Steve Hilton at ext. 4270 or steve.hilton@mwsu.edu.

Geoscience & Environmental Colloquium: Scott Meddaugh

The Geoscience and Environmental Science Colloquium Series will present Dr. Scott Meddaugh at 5 p.m. Thursday, November 9, in Bolin 100. Meddaugh is the Robert L. Bolin Distinguished Professor of Petroleum Geology at MSU's Kimbell School of Geosciences. His topic will be "Experimenting on a Small Planet." For more information, contact Dr. Jesse Carlucci at jesse.carlucci@mwsu.edu.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT

Suhua Huang and Matthew Capps from the West College of Education have published an article titled "U.S. and Chilean College Students' Reading Practices: A Cross-Cultural Perspective" in Reading Research Quarterly, November 2016. The article has been nominated to receive the 2017 Author Applebee Award for Excellence in Research on Literacy.

Lynette Watts, Associate Professor of Radiologic Sciences, presented "Examining grade inflation and considerations for radiologic sciences" at the World Congress on Radiology and Oncology Conference in Jamaica, New York, on October 1. She also served as a session chair for radiology, oncology, and nuclear medicine presentations.

An essay by Jeffrey Oxford, Professor of Spanish, was recently published. The chapter, titled "Police Procedural, Hard-boiled, or Thriller?: Hybridized Novels by Reyes Calderón," appeared in the book Spanish and Latin American Women's Crime Fiction in the New Millennium: From Noir to Gris, (Cambridge Scholars Publishing, pages 47-61), edited by Nancy Vosburg and Nina L. Molinaro.

Gary Neal, Custodian, and Kevin Rainsberg, Housing Maintenance Technician, were the recipients of the Star Award. The award recognizes employees in Facilities Services who take pride in their work and give outstanding service to the campus. Employees are recognized with a certificate as well as unique copper mustang cut out that may be displayed on desks and/or in the Daniel Building front office.

Gary was selected because of his hard work not just inside Dillard where he is normally assigned, but for lending a helping hand in other areas on campus. Gary took on the daunting task of stripping and waxing the old tile floor in the Burns Chapel and made it look fabulous, not to mention helping with the cleaning of the WCA/TRIO before the opening. He assisted in the maintenance of the floors in J.S. Bridwell, too.

Kevin was selected for this award because he has proven over the years to be vital employee. He fully understands satisfying the students is his No. 1 goal and making sure any issues with their apartments are taken care of.
