AROUND CAMPUS

Caribfest

The Caribbean Students Organization (CSO) will celebrate its 20th Annual Caribfest this week beginning with the Mr. and Ms. Caribfest show Thursday, September 28.

Each year, proceeds from the event are donated to two nonprofit organizations in the Wichita Falls community. This year the CSA has selected Booker T. Washington High School and the Wichita Falls Fire Department. A donation will also be made to those islands which have been devastated by Hurricanes Irma and Maria. This year's schedule is as follows:

Mr. and Ms. Caribfest

7 p.m. Thursday, September 28, in Akin Auditorium

Soca Show

7:30 p.m. Friday, September 29, Priddy Pavilion at Sikes Lake

Parade Day

3 p.m. Saturday, September 30, on the MSU campus

Glow Fete

10 p.m. Saturday, September 30, CSC Comanche Suites

For more information about T-shirt and ticket sales, contact Charlene Hood at 940-337-9198 or Grantley Samuels at 954-536-4743.

Retirement Reception: Marcus Hill

Information Technology will host a retirement reception at 3 p.m. Tuesday, September 26, in CSC Kiowa in honor of Marcus Hill. Marcus is retiring after 27 years of service to MSU.

Moffett Movie Madness: Some Like It Hot

Dr. Whitney Snow, Assistant Professor of History, will introduce the screening of Some Like It Hot at 6 p.m. Thursday, September 28, in the Moffett Leisure Reading Area as part of the library's Moffett Movie Madness series. Some Like It Hot is a classic comedy starring Marilyn Monroe, Tony Curtis, and Jack Lemmon. The library will provide the popcorn at this free showing. For more information, contact Andrea Williams at ext. 4698.

Ghislaine Fremaux Opening Reception

The Juanita Harvey Art Gallery will host an opening reception for Ghislaine Fremaux from 6-8 p.m. Friday, September 29. Fremaux is assistant professor of art at Texas Tech University. She earned an MFA from The Pennsylvania State University. Her drawings examine sexuality, selfhood, and the embodied consciousness. Fremaux's work has shown in the 2014 Nicaraguan Biennial, 2014 Biennial of the Central American Isthmus, and A.I.R. Gallery's 10th Biennial in 2012, among other exhibitions nationwide. Current projects investigate the portrayal of survivorship, self-actualization, and nudism. For more information, call ext. 4264.

MSU Theatre will present Luna Gale by Rebecca Gilman at 7:30 p.m. Thursday-Saturday, October 5-7, and at 2:30 p.m. Sunday, October 8, in the Fain Fine Arts Center Theatre. A veteran social worker thinks she has a typical case on her hands when she meets Peter and Karlie, two teenage drug addicts accused of neglecting their baby, Luna Gale. But, when she places the baby in the care of Karlie's mother, she sparks a family conflict that exposes a shadowy, secretive past – and forces her to make a risky decision with potentially disastrous consequences. General admission tickets are $10. Reduced admission, $8. MSU students, faculty, and staff admitted free. For more information or for season ticket or group ticket information, call the box office at ext. 4393, the publicity office at ext. 4399, or the Department of Theatre at ext. 4670.

Landscapes from Maui

Moffett Library will host an opening reception for Professor Catherine

Prose's Landscapes from Maui at 4 p.m. Friday, October 6. Prose spent two weeks in Maui as beneficiary of the Bice Maui Sabbatical, a scholarship provided by Dr. Paul Bice that allows a faculty member from the Prothro-Yeager College of Humanities and Social Sciences or the Lamar D. Fain College of Fine Arts to spend up to two weeks at his Maui home with provisions. Prose created 19 landscapes during her time in Hawaii. They will be on display through December 1. For more information, call Prose at ext. 4304.
