AROUND CAMPUS

Faculty Forum: Core Text Pedagogy

The Forum scheduled for Tuesday, February 20, has been postponed. Dr. Kirsten Lodge, Assistant Professor of Humanities, and Dr. John Schulze, Assistant Professor of English, will present "Core Text Pedagogy: Its Significance and Methodology" using Euripides' Medea. For more information, contact Dr. Jon Price at jonathan.price@mwsu.edu or ext. 4288.

Moffett Movie Madness: Crazy in Alabama

Moffett Library will Crazy in Alabama at 7 p.m. Tuesday, February 20, in the library's leisure reading area. Dr. Valencia Tamper and Dr. Whitney Snow will introduce the film. Comedy and drama take turns in this period piece. Peejoe (Lucas Black), short for Peter Joseph, lives in a small Alabama town in 1965, at the height of the Civil Rights movement. He becomes involved with a group of black students protesting the town's racially segregated municipal swimming pool. Peejoe has gotten a crash course in standing your ground and following your own path from his free-spirited Aunt Lucille (Melanie Griffith), who has killed her abusive husband and is headed for Hollywood, where she's convinced that television stardom awaits her. Free popcorn will be provided. For more information, call ext. 4696.

Health and Wellness Presentations

Two presentations scheduled for Wednesday, February 21 have been postponed. The Department of Human Resources invites you to learn more about the various health and wellness incentives available to you as MSU state employees. Guest speakers will include Erin Jackson, BlueCross BlueShield of Texas Representative; Ejiro Erogbogbo, BlueCross and BlueShield of Texas; Wellness Coordinator, and Angie Reay, Director of the MSU Wellness Center. For more information, call ext. 4221.

Multicultural Greek Council "Hump Day"

Join the culturally-based fraternities and sororities for a day of chilling on the yard, connecting with friends, and taking a mid-day break from hump day. 11 a.m.-2 p.m. February 21 in CSC Atrium. For more information, contact the Office of Equity, Inclusion & Multicultural Affairs at ext. 4947.

Library Workshop: "Don't be a Cheater"

Moffett Library will present "Don't be a Cheater: Avoiding Plagiarism in Writing Research Papers" at 2 p.m. Wednesday, February 21, and again at 3 p.m. Thursday, February 22, in Moffett 212A. The workshop details the steps to avoid plagiarism, a serious error in writing those first papers, which should be avoided at all costs. For more information, contact Allison Breen at ext. 4171.

Farewell Reception

Jamie Fowler, Custodial Services Superintendent, will be honored with a farewell reception from 3-4 p.m. February 22 in Dillard 189. For more information, call ext. 4228.

Theatre: Urinetown the Musical

MSU Theatre will present Mark Hollmann and Greg Kotis' Urinetown the Musical at 7:30 p.m. Thursday and Friday, February 22-23, and 2:30 p.m. Saturday and Sunday, February 24-25, in the Fain Fine Arts Center Theatre. In this musical satire, a water shortage caused by a 20-year drought has led to a government-enforced ban on private toilets. Citizens must use public amenities, regulated by a single malevolent company that profits by charging admission for one of humanity's most basic needs. A hero decides that he's had enough and plans a revolution to lead the masses to freedom. After Friday night's performance, the audience is invited to stay for a talkback session with cast and crew about any aspect of the production. General admission tickets are $10. Price is $8 for pre-college students, senior citizens, and military. MSU students, faculty, and staff admitted free. For more information or for season or group tickets, call the box office at ext. 4393, the publicity office at ext. 4399, or the Department of Theatre at ext. 4670. Performances will continue March 2-3 at 7:30 p.m.

Bench Dedication Ceremony

MSU Texas will recognize the first five black students who enrolled in Midwestern University in 1954 with a bench dedication ceremony at 1 p.m. Friday, February 23, near the Ferguson Building. After a short outdoor ceremony, a discussion will be held in CSC Comanche Suites with surviving student, Dr. Charles Bosley, Dr. Edwin Fuller, and family members of the other students. The discussion will be followed by a reception. Call the Office of Equity, Inclusion &

Multicultural Affairs at ext. 4947 for more information.

Black Excellence Gala

The 3rd Annual Black Excellence Gala is a night of class, pride, and a good time. Join us 6-9 p.m. February 24 in CSC Comanche to recognize members of the MSU community, inspiring messages, and a succulent meal. Purchase tickets here. MSU students $10, MSU faculty, staff, and guests $20. For more information, contact the Office of Equity, Inclusion & Multicultural Affairs at ext. 4947.

MARK YOUR CALENDAR

Retirement Reception

Dean Price, Central Plant Superintendent, is retiring after 19 years of service. Wish him well from 3-4 p.m. Tuesday, February 27, in CSC Comanche. For more information, contact ext. 4228.

Business Etiquette Dinner

The Career Management Center and the Dillard College of Business Administration will present the Annual Business Etiquette Dinner from 6-8 p.m. Wednesday, February 28, in CSC Comanche. Students will learn the basics of dining etiquette while networking with local business representatives. Guest speaker Janus Buss, an etiquette consultant trained and certified by The Protocol School of Washington in Washington, D.C., will discuss the rules of dining and business etiquette while students sit with sponsors and practice dining etiquette and networking skills. This event is a seated dinner and has limited space available. Contact Melissa Boerma at melissa.boerma@mwsu.edu or ext. 4668 to register by February 23.

Getting Life: An Evening with Michael Morton

Michael Morton shares his powerful story of wrongful conviction, 25 years served in prison, and his eventual release as an innocent man at 6 p.m. Thursday, March 1, in Akin Auditorium. All MSU students admitted free with a valid student I.D. Doors open at 6 p.m. Tickets are $25 (no reserved seating) and may be purchased by calling 940-691-1903 or online at www.hthcf.org. Tickets also available at all Hands to Hands Agencies.

Community Health Fair

The College of Health Sciences and Human Services will host the 18th Annual Community Health Fair from 9 a.m.-1 p.m. Friday, March 2, in the Don Flatt Gym in D.L. Ligon Coliseum. Nursing students, respiratory therapy students, and dental hygiene students each participate. Blood pressure readings, blood glucose, pulmonary function, vision, HIV/AIDS, STDs, and BMI are among the screenings that participants could receive. Educational activities related to nutrition, exercise, smoking/vaping cessation, distracted driving, ergonomics, self-defense, and more will be available. For more information, call ext. 4048.

Ceramics Bowl-a-Thon

The ceramics department will host a spring Bowl-a-Thon March 3-4 in Fain Fine Arts C119 in preparation for the October Empty Bowls of Wichita Falls event, which raises funds for the Wichita Falls Area Food Bank. In the past, more than 1,000 bowls have been made each year for the fundraiser. For more information, call ext. 4270 or email steve.hilton@mwsu.edu.
