AROUND CAMPUS

Summer work schedule

The University will begin a four-day workweek beginning Monday, June 4, through Thursday, July 26. Office hours will be 7 a.m.-6 p.m. with a one-hour lunch break. The University will resume the five-day workweek on Monday, July 30. This schedule does not apply to areas that are designated to work a five-day schedule.

Employees will not work on Independence Day, Wednesday, July 4. However, employees on the four-day workweek schedule will work Friday, July 6 to account for the 40 hours during the week containing the holiday.

All Fired Up: Ceramics Camp at MSU Texas

The Juanita and Ralph Harvey School of Visual Arts' Department of Ceramics invites students ages 14-17 to join Resident Artist and Adjunct Professor Alberto Veronica Lopez in learning about art made with clay. Projects covered in this camp are methods of being creative with clay sculpture and learning the potter's wheel. All artwork will be fired using a variety of methods by the instructor and can be picked up at a later date at the Kemp Center for the Arts.

Camp will be from 8:30 a.m.-noon Monday-Friday, June 11-15, in the Fain Fine Arts Center. Cost is $125.
