IN THE SPOTLIGHT

Frank B. Wyatt, Professor in the Department of Athletic Training and Exercise Physiology, was co-author on a recent scientific publication. The article titled, "Primary School Children's Health Behaviors, Attitudes, and Body Mass Index After a 10-Week Lifestyle Intervention with Follow-Up" was published in the May edition of Frontiers in Pediatrics, Vol. 6: 1-8. Co-authors included Elise Brown, an alumna of the Master of Science Exercise Physiology program at MSU Texas.

Suzanne Lindt, Associate Professor and Dittika Gupta, Assistant Professor of Curriculum and Learning, published an article titled "Changing Mathematics Teaching Efficacy of College Students: The Impact of Informal Learning" in the Texas Forum of Teacher (Vol. 7). The article examines the impact of facilitating a weeklong mathematics middle school camp on college students' mathematics teaching efficacy beliefs. The camp was funded by West Center of Educational Research.

Roberto Fuertes-Manjón, Professor of Spanish, recently presented the paper titled "De Raíces a Tarahumara: una original Mirada a la realidad indigenista de México" at the 2018

Encuentro Continental Intercultural de Literaturas Amerindias at the Pontificia Universidad Javeriana in Bogota, Colombia.

Vicki Sanders, Associate Professor of Radiologic Sciences and President of the Society of Radiology Physician Extenders, and Jessyca Wagner, Assistant Professor of Radiologic Sciences and Secretary/Treasurer of the Association of Collegiate Educators in Radiologic Technology, were invited by the American Society of Radiologic Technologists (ASRT) Foundation to attend the Health Care Industry Advisory Council (HCIAC) Meeting May 1-3 in Manalapan, Florida. HCIAC supports radiologic industry partners' collaborative work to identify critical issues in the radiologic sciences. The goal of the meeting was to share successful strategies to educate and prepare technologists for the future of medical imaging and radiation therapy.
