Speakers & Issues Series: Towana Spivey

The Speakers & Issues Series will present Towana Spivey at 7 p.m. Wednesday, November 13, at the Wichita Falls Museum of Art. Spivey's topic will be "The Battle for Medicine Bluffs." Spivey is the descendant of several generations of Chickasaws who came to the Indian Territory in 1837 from northern Mississippi. He was born in Madill, Oklahoma, and he still owns the original 140-acre Chickasaw allotment of his grandparents. Spivey works to preserve the history, language, and material culture of many Oklahoma tribes including the Chickasaw, Choctaw, Comanche, Kiowa, Chiricahua, Apache, and the Warm Springs Apache. Admission is free; donations are welcome. For more information, contact the Speakers & Issues Committee at ext. 6239 or email whitney.snow@msutexas.edu.

Annual Book Plating Ceremony & Reception

Moffett Library will host its annual book plating ceremony at 3 p.m. Thursday, November 14, on the second floor of the library. This ceremony honors faculty who have earned tenure and/or advancement in professional rank at Midwestern State University. Each is asked to select a book for addition to the library collection. A reception will follow the ceremony. For more information, contact Dr. Clara Latham at ext. 4757 or email clara.latham@msutexas.edu.
