Campus News

State Employee Charitable Campaign (SECC)

The State Employee Charitable Campaign (SECC) is a way for Texas state employees to contribute to charitable organizations. Employees may choose from nearly 400 participating local, state, national, and international charities. View the list of SECC organizations online. Giving through SECC is easy! Employees may designate charities of their choice through SECC and have their gift deducted from their paycheck and spread over 9 or 12 months. Giving through payroll deduction can be done online. Employees may also donate to charities of their choice through SECC using the paper form, which was provided through campus mail.

This year's campaign runs October 1–31. For any questions, please contact one of the local campaign representatives listed below.
