Viva MSU

The Office of Student Leadership and Involvement will kick off Hispanic Heritage Month festivities at 7 p.m. Monday, September 16, in Sunwatcher Plaza. Local bands will perform while Hispanic-based organizations share their culture. For a full list of Hispanic Heritage Month activities, visit Mustangs Link. For more information, contact the Office of Student Leadership & Involvement at ext. 3033 or email student.activities@msutexas.edu.

Bystander Intervention Training

"If we see something, we say something." It is the #StangGang code! Mustangs don't allow other Mustangs to endure hurt, harm, or danger. Learn strategies to intervene when fellow Mustangs are being targeted. MSU Texas students are invited to participate in Bystander Intervention Training at 7 p.m. Tuesday, September 17, or at 8 p.m. Wednesday, September 18, in Legacy Multipurpose Room. For more information, contact the Title IX Office at titleix@msutexas.edu.

Critical Conversations Series

The MSU Campus Community is invited to the Fall 2019 Critical Conversations Series to discuss topics that intersect diversity, equity, and student success. The series begins at 1 p.m. Friday, September 20, in Legacy Multipurpose Room. The fall topics are:

- September 20: Supporting Today's College Student
- October 25: In TRANSition: Supporting Transgender Students
- November 15: Campus Ministries: Place & Purpose on Today's College Campus

Texas Women: Three Centuries of Ranchers, Spies, Gunrunners, Bankers, Lawyers & Educators.” Goldthwaite could be considered an expert on the topic of Texas women. A seventh-generation Texan herself, she is the author of Texas Ranch Women: Three Centuries of Mettle and Moxie (2014) and Texas Dames: Sassy and Savvy Women throughout Lone Star History (2012). Texas Ranch Women profiles approximately 20 Texas women who did not just live on a ranch, but ran the business and the cattle, fighting nature to hang onto their lives and families. Texas Dames tells stories of women who broke gender and racial barriers to achieve “firsts” as physicians, mayors, scientists, and other accomplishments. Goldthwaite also is a career journalist, author, and teacher who has written for The New York Times; the Dallas Morning News, and the Houston Chronicle, with her reporting leading to statewide awards and syndication with Scripps Howard News Service. For more information, contact the speakers and issues committee at ext. 6239 or email whitney.snow@msutexas.edu.

In the Spotlight

Charles Bultena, Charles Ramser, and Kristopher Tilker from the Dillard College of Business Administration have recently had a paper accepted for publication in the Southern Journal of Business and Ethics. The title of the paper is "Mediation Madness V: Misfit Mediators." This will be the 10th paper they have presented and published dealing with the evolution of mediation as an alternative dispute resolution technique.

Ryan Samuelson with Moffett Library and Todd Giles with the Department of English presented "Ryan and Todd's Excellent Adventure: An Embedded Librarian and Professor Co-Teach the 1980s" at the Texas Library Association's Library Instruction Round Table Summit on September 13 at Sam Houston State University in Huntsville, Texas.
