AROUND CAMPUS

National Library Week

April 3-9 is National Library Week, a time to highlight the essential role libraries, librarians, and library workers play in transforming lives and strengthening communities. The theme for this year's National Library Week is "Connect with Your Library," which promotes the idea that libraries are places to get connected to technology by using broadband, computers, and other resources. Moffett Library encourages the campus community to visit the library in person or online to explore and access services and programs. Contact Tasia Floissac by email at tasia.floissac@msutexas.edu or call ext. 4698. Events planned for the week include:

Tuesday, April 5

Library Connections
All day Moffett Library Atrium

Wednesday, April 6

Wednesday, April 6

Safe Zone Training & Luncheon
Noon-2 p.m. Legacy Multipurpose Room

Safe Zone Training increases the awareness, knowledge, and skills for individuals and addresses the challenges that exist when one wants to advocate for their LGBTQ peers, family members, friends, coworkers, and themselves. Creating safe zones or safe spaces is a proactive step schools, agencies, and corporations can take to create welcoming, inclusive spaces so that all people are empowered to reach their full potential. Some discussions will build on previous training sessions and new topics related to the recent orders from Gov. Greg Abbott will be discussed. RSVP to attend this semester's safe zone.

Artist Lecture at WFMA at MSU Texas: Sedrick Huckaby

During February, Black History Month, the Wichita Falls Museum of Art at MSU Texas unveiled a new acquisition by artist Sedrick Huckaby. The acquisition, “American Dad,” was obtained through the WFMA’s Collectors Circle for the museum’s permanent collection. Huckaby will visit the WFMA at MSU Texas to speak about “American Dad” and his themes of faith, family, community, and heritage at 5:30 p.m. Friday, April 8 at the WFMA. Lori Shirah, an American Sign Language interpreter, will interpret Huckaby’s lecture. Contact the WFMA at ext. 8900 for more information.

Theatre: Ada and the Engine

The Department of Theatre will present Ada and the Engine by Lauren Gunderson at 7:30 p.m. Friday and Saturday, April 8-9, in the Fain Fine Arts Center Theatre. As the British Industrial Revolution dawns, young Ada Byron Lovelace (daughter of the flamboyant and notorious Lord Byron) sees the boundless creative potential in the “analytic engines” of her friend and soul-mate, Charles Babbage, inventor of the first mechanical computer. Ada envisions a whole new world where art and information converge – a world she might not live to see. General admission tickets are $10. Price is $8 for senior citizens and military. MSU students, faculty, and staff will be admitted free. Get tickets online or call the box office at ext. 4393.

WFMA at MSU Texas calling for student/alumni/faculty artists

The Wichita Falls Museum of Art at MSU Texas is looking for MSU Texas artists. The call is for faculty, staff, alumni, or student artists who would like to be part of the WFMA Sunspree Market Day Saturday, June 25. The event was inspired by the beloved Spring Fling arts festival that flourished from the 1970s to the early 2000s. This reinvented version will showcase juried art for sale by MSU Texas faculty, student, and alumni artists along with music, watercolor, face painting, and more. For more information, call the museum at 940-397-8900 or email Elizabeth Adams at elizabeth.adams@msutexas.edu. To apply, send artist's name, titles of work, images of work, and descriptions to elizabeth.adams@msutexas.edu by 11:59 p.m. April 15, 2022.
