AROUND CAMPUS

Photography exhibition opens at Harvey Art Gallery

The Juanita Harvey Art Gallery will present “Cara Romero: Mythos and Sub-Pop,” an exhibition by award-winning photographer Cara Romero. Romero is an enrolled citizen of the Chemehuevi Indian Tribe who lives in Santa Fe, New Mexico. Her photography is a blend of fine art and editorial photography, shaped by years of study and a visceral approach to representing Indigenous and non-Indigenous cultural memory, collective history, and lived experiences from a Native American female perspective. The exhibition will be on display through Feb. 25. Call 940-397-4264 for more information.
