Faculty Senate

Purpose: (defined by OP 06.02)

The Faculty Senate is a deliberative body established by the faculty and the Board of Regents of Midwestern State University. Its purpose is to promote understanding among all university constituents and to improve academic welfare within the university.

Constitution (Article IV): (defined by OP 06.03)

The Faculty Senate is charged with the responsibility of promoting the general welfare of the university. The Faculty Senate shall be an advisory committee to the President of the university, and shall advise, when appropriate, administrative officers of the university on proposed changes in policy. The Senate shall periodically review existing policies in each of the following areas: faculty affairs, student affairs, and academic affairs. The Staff Senate chair appoints the Staff Senate representative.

Academic Readmission Committee

Purpose:

To make recommendations on the admissibility of students who are on suspension but do not wish to sit out the allotted time. The committee meets in January, June, and August on specified days, so students should contact the office of Tutoring and Academic Support Programs (TASP) for appeal deadlines. If re-instated, students will be eligible to enroll for classes with limitations or restrictions. If denied, students will be required to sit out their fixed suspension time. Please note that students can only meet before the Readmission Committee once.

Personnel:

Director of Tutoring and Academic Support Programs (TASP) who will Chair the committee and vote only to break a tie. Voting members: one faculty member from each college, two students, a representative from TASP recommended by TASP Director, and the Director of Admissions. Non-voting members: the Associate Vice President for Academic Affairs and the Associate Vice President for Student Enrollment and Dean of Students. One alternate full-time faculty member will be appointed from each college and will be expected to serve if the regular member cannot attend. An alternate member, when serving in the regular member's place, has the same rights and privileges as the regular member. Following their term as alternates, alternates will move to committee member status. At least three faculty members and one student from the committee will be present for each student hearing.

College Tenure and Promotion Committees

Purpose: (defined by OP 06.05)

To review existing policy and procedure with respect to tenure and promotions. To review recommendations submitted by the Chairs for faculty tenure and/or promotion and to make appropriate recommendations to the Dean based on this review. The committee's report will be a statement of its findings as to whether the faculty member meets the stated criteria for promotion and/or tenure based on the documentation presented by the faculty member.

Personnel:

Each College Tenure and Promotion Committee will consist of at least three senior, tenured members of the faculty. Whatever the total, there must be an odd number of members on the College Tenure and Promotion Committee. At the discretion of the College Dean, the committee may be either elected by the college faculty or appointed by the College Dean based on recommendations from the College Council. Representatives will serve two-year staggered terms. The members must hold at least the rank of associate professor, be tenured, and have a record of continuing professional activity. If one of those serving is being considered for promotion, an alternate will be selected to serve one year of the term. The College Dean may not serve on the committee. The Department Chair may not serve on the committee if a faculty member from that department is being considered for promotion and/or tenure. No member of the College Tenure and Promotion Committee may serve concurrently on the University Tenure and Promotion Committee. The committee will elect a Chair from among its members.

University Tenure and Promotion Committee

Purpose: (defined by OP 06.05)

To review existing policy and procedure with respect to promotions and tenure. To review applications for promotion and tenure including recommendations prepared by the relevant Chair, the College Tenure and Promotion Committee, and the relevant Dean and to make appropriate recommendations to the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs based on this review. The committee's report will be a statement of its findings as to whether the faculty member meets the stated criteria for promotion and/or tenure based on the documentation presented by the faculty member. A candidate's application may be considered only if a representative of the candidate's college is present.

Personnel:

The University Tenure and Promotion Committee will consist of senior, tenured members of the faculty. Each college shall be represented by one tenured committee member for each twenty line-item, full-time positions, or major fraction thereof. All members of the committee will be elected within their college for two-year staggered terms. In a college with two or more representatives, the terms of college representatives will be staggered. No academic department may have more than one elected representative. The members must hold at least the rank of associate professor, be tenured, and have a record of continuing professional activity. If one of those elected is being considered for promotion, an alternate will be elected from that college to serve one year of the term. No faculty member can serve more than two consecutive terms. College Deans, the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs, or the University President may not serve on the committee. A Department Chair may serve on the committee, provided that no faculty member from that Chair's department is being considered for tenure and/or promotion. No member of the University Tenure and Promotion Committee may serve concurrently on the College Tenure and Promotion Committee. The Committee will annually elect a Chair for the next year from members not serving the final year of a two-year term and who are not likely to apply for promotion during the subsequent year.
