MARCH 2021
7:30 p.m. March 1
Communiversity Orchestra Concert

The concert will feature music of Joseph Bologne (Chevalier de Saint-Georges), the first known classical composer of African ancestry, as well as music pertaining to the ongoing Korean conflict.

Livestream

7:30 p.m. March 11
Student Chamber Ensemble Concert

The concert will feature music of female composers.

Livestream

March 22-26
Inclusion Now! Festival

The festival will feature five luncheon workshops, each pertaining to a different social justice issue. Links are forthcoming.

APRIL 2021
April 1-30
Juried Art Exhibition: Restore Our Earth

In honor of Earth Day, the virtual exhibition will feature artwork that celebrates our planet and presents diverse views of and concerns for the environment.

Online exhibition

7:30 p.m. April 6
Faculty Recital: Dr. Ruth Morrow, piano

The recital will feature solo piano music commemorating Armenian Genocide, the Trail of Tears, the Underground Railroad, the Dachau Death March of April 1945, and the separation of parents and children at the US-Mexico border.

Livestream

5:15 p.m. April 9
First Friday Concert with Dr. Ruth Morrow: Spirituals

The concert will feature arrangements of spirituals for solo piano and choir.

Livestream

7:30 p.m. April 13
Percussion Ensemble Concert

The concert will feature music of Black composer Quinn Mason and female composer Karen Ervin.

Livestream

7:30 p.m. April 19
Communiversity Orchestra Concert

The concert will feature music in memory of victims of fascism and war, as well as music containing African drumming patterns.

Livestream

7:30 p.m. April 22
PRISMS Concert

The concert will feature music composed by underrepresented individuals, music that shines a light on social justice and equity issues, and music pertaining to historically significant triumphs and movements for specific populations.

Livestream

PRESENTED BY THE LAMAR D. FAIN COLLEGE OF FINE ARTS

All events are subject to change. Call 940-397-4243 for the latest updates.