

Lamar D. Fain
College of Fine Arts
Department of Music

presents

First Friday Concert with Dr. Ruth Morrow & Friends

Merry March! There will be very little talk this concert with so much music to enjoy! Three additional concerts coming up you won't want to miss: the musical Big Fish this weekend (a collaboration between music and theatre departments – tickets available at the door), and the more woodwind chamber music this coming Tuesday evening at 7:30 p.m. Plus (and this comes around only every now and then) – April 1st is on a Friday so you know what that means: an April Fool's Concert with cats and a spoof of "Stars and Stripes Forever". Please join us for these upcoming concerts, and now enjoy today's offerings:

'maya' (2000) Ian Clarke (b. 1964)
Cierra Bentley and Mekisha Harrigan, flutes
Dr. Sung-Soo Cho, piano

Romance (1821) Carl Maria von Weber (1786-1826)
Harrison Cating, tenor trombone
Dr. Sung-Soo Cho, piano

Légende (1906) George Enescu (1881-1955)
Paul Geraci, trumpet
Ruth Morrow, piano

Dusk (2004) Steven Bryant (b. 1972)
Cierra Bentley, Mekisha Harrigan, Johanna Barnett, Della Garcia, flutes
Adam Turnbo, clarinet; Jason Grubenhoff, saxophone
Harrison Cating, trombone; Bryson Graves, euphonium
Jonah Seigler, conductor

Friday Afternoon
March 4, 2022

Akin Auditorium
5:15p