

MSU Student Application Perkins-Prothro Scholarship

The Perkins-Prothro Foundation provides scholarships to outstanding students majoring in the Prothro-Yeager College of Humanities and Social Sciences. Implicit within the foundation's mission is the desire to attract and reward our most distinguished students. Full-time students are awarded $1,500, which is dispersed over the Fall ($750) and Spring ($750) semesters. Part-time recipients receive a lower amount based upon available funds and number of hours taken. A student must be a major in the Prothro-Yeager College of Humanities and Social Sciences and enrolled at MSU every semester the scholarship is awarded.

Applications are due April 1, 2023. Current Recipients must re-apply. Please fill out all applicable information.

Students currently receiving Perkins-Prothro Scholarships must re-apply each year and attach a copy of the previous year's grades.

MSU academic scholarships should not be confused with federal, need-based grants. Most MSU scholarships are not need-based. However, receipt of an academic scholarship may affect a student's status for federal aid programs. Therefore, a student may want to contact MSU's Financial Aid Office before accepting an MSU scholarship. Failure to fully and accurately disclose all information may eliminate scholarship consideration.
