Bonjour! Study in Tours, a lively university town in the center-west of France, often referred to as the Garden of France. It is the administrative center of the Indre-et-Loire department and the largest city in the Centre-Val de Loire region of France. Tours stands on the lower reaches of the River Loire, and is known for its wines, and the quality of its spoken French. Popular with many is the medieval city center, where locals and visitors alike enjoy a relaxed environment and plenty of cafes. Connected by high-speed train (TGV), you are only about one hour from the heart of Paris.

Academic Program
You will travel in a group accompanied by an MSU faculty member, who will be the administrator for the program. All classes will be taught by instructors of the Institut de Touraine, and are tailored to individual skill levels. Classes will run approximately six hours per day, with a break. The first block of classes will focus on general language and conversation, with the second block focusing on the elective of choice (literature, art, culture, profession, etc.). The MSU faculty administrator will continually be present at the Institut de Touraine to discuss student attendance, participation, and growth during the program.

Excursions
As part of your fee, you will have credit toward possible excursions sponsored by the Institut de Touraine. You will have the option to choose excursions that fit your interests.

Upon completion of the program, together with all students, you will depart Tours for a three-day/two-night guided tour of Paris, led by your faculty member. Each day, the guided tour usually lasts about half a day, and you will be free to explore Paris in groups at the conclusion of the tour. All students and faculty will leave together for the airport on the day of departure.

Program Includes
Airfare (round-trip airfare to and from Paris), coach transfers to/from Paris to Tours, MSU Texas tuition and program fees, private housing, two meals daily, two weekend excursions (single day), two nights’ accommodation in Paris after classes are completed and before you return.
