

WRITING INTENSIVE COURSE APPLICATION

Please complete the form below, including signatures, and submit it to the University Writing Council for review. Digital completed forms and accompanied documents can be emailed to the UWC Chair at john.schulze@msutexas.edu or sent through campus mail to Dr. John Schulze in BW 212.

Date:
Department:
Course Title:
Course Number:
Course Description:

List Course Writing Assignments and Grade Percentages (minimum of 3 totally 50% of final grade)
Writing Assignment Title	Percentage of Grade

Describe ONE of the Writing Assignments: (Please provide a narrative that explains the details of ONE writing assignment for the course. Be sure to include how students will use the writing process and receive instructor and/or peer feedback on their writing.)

WI Checklist:

Criteria	Department (Y/N)	Writing Council (Y/N)
Course has a recommended cap of 25 students
Course includes 3 formal writing assignments comprising of at least 50% of the final course grade
Course gives attention to writing process (This means that students have opportunities for planning, drafting, and revising when completing at least one writing assignment.)
Instructor and/or peers provide feedback on writing (This means that students receive suggestions and comments from peers and/or the instructor before submitting a final draft.)
Uses a rubric on at least one assignment (There is not a standard rubric for WI classes, but students should understand criteria for the writing assignment's assessment. Instructors may refer to the AAC&U Writing Communication VALUE Rubric for assistance in rubric development.)

Please attach a copy of the course syllabus and one writing assignment's rubric.

Department Chair Signature

Dean of College Signature

University Writing Council Signature