DISTANCE EDUCATION

ADA Compliance and Instructional Design

Zack Shanks from the Distance Education team is here to help with ADA compliance and instructional design for online courses. Online course compliance items include:

- Syllabi
- PDFs
- Word documents
- PowerPoints
- Video Files
- Audio Files
- Images
- Color Contrast

He is available for 1 on 1 or multiple-participant training. Face to Face or Zoom is available. For assistance or to schedule a training, email Kenneth.shanks@msutexas.edu.

Training

Training Opportunities:

Training will be available in person or via Zoom.
A calendar schedule is attached, Maroon is Zoom and Black is in person in the Faculty Lab HA 225.

Please contact danielle.mcafee@msutexas.edu to schedule.

Test Integrity:
Options available to utilize for online test integrity.
1 hour

Inclusive Design Series:
Caption & Transcript videos in D2L.
30 minutes

Academic Integrity - Written Work:
Options available to utilize for integrity in online written work.
30 minutes

Let's Build Your Gradebook:
Set up your course Gradebook with Distance Ed staff assistance.
1 hour

Open Lab Hours:
Faculty Lab - HA 225 open for drop in assistance and course building. The lab is equipped with new computers (Dell & Mac), headsets, webcams, and Distance Ed Staff.

Turnitin update: AI detection

Turnitin announced the implemention AI detection into their services. This will start on April 4th of this year.

MSU uses Turnitin Originality so this will continue to be a feature for us in the future.

Currently this is restricted to English only, with more languages expected in the future.