

Instructions for STUDENTS who would like to receive extra credit

- The Undergraduate Research and Creative Activities Forum / Celebration of Scholarship will be held on April 17th - April 18th, in the Clark Student Center.
 - April 17th/Wednesday - Faculty & Graduate presentations: Beginning at 1pm
 - April 18th/Thursday - Undergraduate presentations: Beginning at 9am
- The final program and schedule will be available the week of the event on our website: UGR website
- You will use the link provided here to evaluate the presentations you attend: Electronic Evaluation Form
- Find out from your professor/instructor how many presentations you must attend, then complete an evaluation for each presentation you attend. The evaluations are anonymous, to be seen by only UGRCAF officials, and will not be shared with the presenters so be thorough and honest.
- Be sure to complete ALL information correctly in the evaluation form so that your instructors can be notified of your attendance and participation.
- Lists will be sent to instructors after the event, documenting your check-in and your completed evaluations.
- The evaluation form closes at 6:00 pm on April 18th.
