Methods Used to Determine Which Students Receive Aid and How Much

MSU Texas has been committed to assisting all eligible students that may have been impacted by the coronavirus pandemic to the greatest extent possible with the HEERF funds available. Students were determined to be eligible to receive an ARP Act grant if currently enrolled in a program of study during the Summer I 2021 term as of June 8, 2021. Per the U.S. Department of Education, all students who are or were enrolled in an institution of higher education during the COVID-19 national emergency are eligible for emergency financial aid grants from the HEERF, regardless of whether they completed a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) or are eligible for Title IV. Grant award amounts ranged from $200 to $600 and were determined using a matrix based on enrollment and to prioritize students with exceptional need, such as students who receive Pell Grants.
