Individual Plaques

Panel 1
Welcome to the Spirit of the Mustangs. This is a reverse place, a reflective place. These Mustangs represent your journey through your education. Visit here often as you pursue your dreams and your goals. Let what you represent remind us of the opportunity and your commitment to seeing it through. This is your story.

Panel 2
The Mustang being made at the other end. He is making progress. For some, he represents the first to go. For others, he represents a proud college going legacy. He has been and will always be there for me and my goals. Whether or not I achieve my dreams or not, he is here. The Mustang reminds me of my goals and takes me on my journey. Throughout my Mustang journey, visit here to be reminded when you are challenged and to celebrate your successes. Be reminded of the milestone you lived on this line.

Panel 3
The Mustang being made at the other end. He is making progress. For some, he represents the first to go. For others, he represents a proud college going legacy. He has been and will always be there for me and my goals. Whether or not I achieve my dreams or not, he is here. The Mustang reminds me of my goals and takes me on my journey. Throughout my Mustang journey, visit here to be reminded when you are challenged and to celebrate your successes. Be reminded of the milestone you lived on this line.

Panel 4
The journey begins as a full gallop. She is at the halfway point of her journey and she has found her passion. She has built an identity and direction. She has found her purpose and direction. She has found her purpose and direction. She has found her purpose and direction. She has found her purpose and direction. She has found her purpose and direction. She has found her purpose and direction. She has found her purpose and direction.

Panel 5
The senior horse, proud, confident, and now inspiring others to follow. All that is left is to show the knowledge and skills she has acquired. She walks on her own, fighting the resistance of the Mustang. The Mustang begins with a tentative step and now steps with a bold step towards the future. Remember who you are and be satisfied that you are forever a part of the Mustang family.