WASHINGTON D.C.

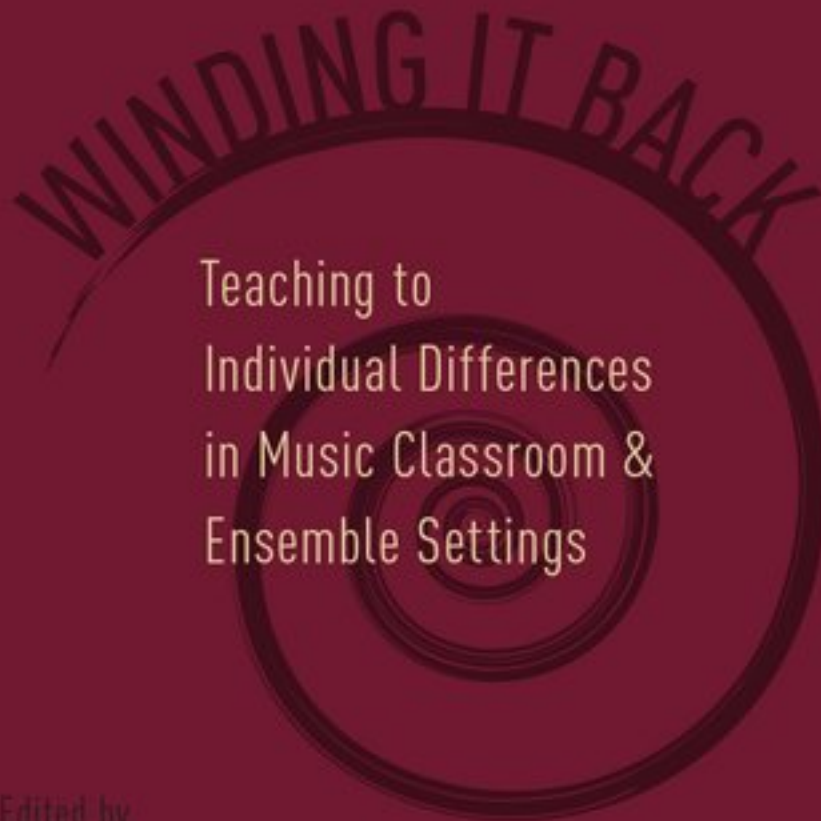

Susan,

I can't begin to tell you just how much I've learned being here with you at PMMS. I can truly say that I've had a chance to observe both the best and worst music teachers during my student teaching experience. Not only are you a true inspiration as far as teaching and mentorship - but an amazing female role model.

I am very grateful for the opportunity I was given to come and learn from you. I know I haven't been the best of student teachers, but it is very hard to imitate such a great teacher. Thank you so much for everything!! I feel so much more prepared to go out and be apart of the teaching community.

All the Best!
